ANDREW J. DORR, D.D.S.
President

As summer comes to a close, Fall begins and Winter looms, the long days of sunlight become fewer and fewer.

Lately it seems this is the same for membership in organized dentistry – the tripartite of the American Dental Association, Ohio Dental Association, and the Cincinnati Dental Society. Active membership in the ADA has slipped to 57% in the past year. The ODA membership has been reduced to 61%. The Cincinnati Dental Society has also seen its membership shrink as well over the past few years. Continuing to trend this way could change our membership, our voice, in matters that affect all of us as dentists.

The ADA, ODA, and CDS offer our membership – services, opportunities, and a unified voice in issues that impact the practice of dentistry. Some of the services far outweigh the cost of membership. Along with a long list of preferred providers who offer discounts on multiple goods and services the ADA on our behalf is seeking legislative solutions for dental workforce issues in many states.

The ADA has created two different recruitment flyers to put in our dental offices. These flyers could be used to present at a local career day or distribute at job fairs or other community events. These efforts are directed first at recruitment of dental assistants and dental hygienists and in addition to dental office managers and laboratory technicians.

I find advocacy to be the most important aspect of membership. The ADA advocates on our behalf by defending the profession, dental patients, and oral health before Congress and federal regulatory offices.

Recently the ODA has completed a regulatory compliance guide. The Guide, "Ohio Dentist Advisor: Your Guide to Regulatory Compliance" is available now on the ODA website to download. This guide includes information on dental license requirements and C.E., infection control and hazard communication. Also, the DEA's requirement for DEA-registered practitioners to complete eight (8) hours of opioid management. These are just a few of the compliance items that you can access for checklists and a fillable form to help ensure your office is compliant with regulations. The availability of invaluable information is part of membership.

Our membership is made up of some of the brightest, most hardworking individuals I know.

All the ODA has to offer can be accessed on the website or can be discussed with the staff at the ODA with a simple phone call. Many times, I have reached out to the ODA staff with questions and had them answered within minutes! I also find this information invaluable.

Last but not least in the tripartite is the Cincinnati Dental Society. Our membership is made up of some of the brightest, most hardworking individuals I know. Our executive director, Vicki Nixon, tirelessly advocates for our membership. She is always searching for ways to increase membership. Thinking outside the box to benefit all our members and appeal to all age groups, genders, and ethnicities.

My hope is that as I finish my term as president of the Cincinnati Dental Society that the tripartite will continue to exist well into the future. Hopefully, the downward trend of membership slows. We are only as strong as the sum of our parts!

Thank you to the membership of the Cincinnati Dental Society for allowing me to be your president this year!

BY VICTORIA J. NIXON, MSA
Executive Director

As we wind down the Summer we begin the next three months of events and continuing education programs for our members and their dental team. I encourage you and your dental team to take the time to review this Bulletin.

By the time you receive this Bulletin, Dr. Manny Chopra, will have been installed as the Ohio Dental Association president, and elected as the ADA 7th District Trustee and we are so very proud that he will represent our Society and your profession at the ODA and the American Dental Association. Congratulations, and all the best, Dr. Chopra!

It is becoming more apparent that attendance at our CDS Member Events, and continuing education programs has been decreasing. I always wanted to believe, and have actually said, that COVID had something do with the decrease. However, as I look back on the number of members that have attended our events and CE programs, it started way before COVID; yes, COVID did not help, but it had nothing do with the beginning of the decline in member attendance.

Lives are busier than ever these days and available time for other things than your profession and family is slim to none. If you can carve out just 3 hours in an evening once a year to attend a CDS Member Event, you never know who you will meet or what you may learn that could potentially have an impact on your life or profession in the future. Especially for our young members. If you have never been to a CDS Member Event I encourage you to attend as you will meet some amazing people who share the same commitment to their patients as you. If you have a been member for quite some time, invite a young member to a CDS Member Event. Remember it is complimentary for all CDS members!

As Dr. Dorr mentioned in his President's Message, membership is down at all levels. We are not alone. Many organizations have experienced this for many years, but we, the dental profession, have always maintained a high market share and membership retention rate. Not so anymore. So, it is even more important to maintain your membership, continue to encourage your colleagues that are not members to join. Help keep your profession strong!

Have a super last quarter of 2023 and until next time...

... it is even more important to maintain your membership, continue to encourage your colleagues that are not members to join. Help keep your profession strong!

October 27: "Offensive Dentistry" and "Nobody Caries" by Brian Novy, DDS

Location: Delta Hotels by Marriott, 11320 Chester Road, Cincinnati, OH 45246. 513-771-2080

Schedule: 8:00 a.m. Registration  8:30 a.m. Program

Sponsored In Part by: Cincinnati Insurance Companies, Elevate Oral Care, Haleon, and Stock Yards Bank & Trust

Staff Invited: Dental Hygienists, Dental Assistants and Administrative Personnel of registered dentists.

CE Credits: Six (6) CE Credits Hours

"Offensive Dentistry"

Let's face it, sitting through a lecture about dental caries or caries risk assessment isn't appealing (in fact it sounds downright boring). However, the science of clinical cariology is beginning to have an impact on restorative techniques and technology. Streptococcus mutans has more to fear than a rheostat now that we're armed with salivary diagnostics and bioactive materials.

At the end of this course, participants should be able to:

- Intervene medically in the caries process.
- Control patient caries risk with focused therapeutics.
- Design restorations to minimize recurrent decay.
- Improve the prognosis of restorative treatment.

"Nobody Caries"

Sometimes it seems as though our patients don't grasp the basic concept of home care. Other times our patients with impeccable hygiene develop rampant decay and we feel helpless because we can't figure out what's going on. The mouth is a remarkable environment that cariologists are finally beginning to understand, and so can you. Learn everything you didn't know about plaque and the amazing organisms that make the mouth a wonderful place to work.

Learning Objectives

- Explain the mixed ecological approach to caries causation.
- Apply Evidence Based and novel preventive therapies.
- Quickly identify high caries risk patients before they develop disease.
- Stop "watching" lesions and see them get smaller.

About the Speaker

Dr. Novy is the Chief Dental Officer of the Alliance Dental Center in Quincy, Massachusetts. The California Dental Association Foundation presented him with the Dugoni Award for "Outstanding contributions to dental education," and his office was the first to receive the title, "American Dental Association Adult Preventive Care Practice of the Year." He served on the ADA Council of Scientific Affairs from 2010 to 2014, and as chair of the CAMBRA coalition. In 2016 he was appointed the consumer advocate on the United States Food and Drug Administration Dental Products Panel.

About the Program

While medical emergencies are relatively rare in a dental practice, the consequences can be devastating. Anticipation and preparation are key to successful outcomes. In this presentation, we will discuss how underlying medical conditions combined with stress can precipitate specific emergencies, as well as the recognition and management of common medical emergencies that could occur in a dental practice. We will also review emergency medications that may be useful in the management of medical emergencies.

Learning Objectives

1. The eyes never see what the mind does not know! Identify common emergencies.
2. Create an emergency action plan in the office.
3. Learn to manage common emergencies in the dental office.
4. Learn to engage in emergency drills in the office.
